Daily Proceedings

FIRST DAY

Morning Session

Thursday, January 20, 1938.

The astute and scholarly Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam called to order the fourteenth session of the South Florida Annual at Mount Zion Methodist Episcopal Church in Clearwater. After a brief devotional service the Bishop brought to our eager and hungry hearts a message of joy and beauty as he referred to the illustrious and sacrificial life of Paul and other Christian heroes from the theme "The Stimulus of Christ." At the conclusion of this soul-searching message every heart was captured by its sheer buoyancy and majestic simplicity.

With hearts "strangely warmed" the Bishop led in the administration of the Lord's Supper, assisted by Dr. N. E. Davis and the District Superintendents. A large number partook of the sacred elements of our Lord and Saviour with prayers of rededication.

The roll was called and the Bishop inquired if anyone had died; the reply was in the negative.

Organization.—Rev. C. R. A. Banks, Secretary; assistants, Revs. C. B. Higgs and O. A. Burns.

Rev. A. J. Coulter, Treasurer; assistants, Revs. S. B. Wilson and A. W. Alexander.

Rev. N. J. Curinton, Statistician; assistants, Revs. J. S. Cameron and Albert Stone.

Rev. Jerome Del Pino, Postmaster.

The bar of the Conference was fixed as the first six rows. Motion carried that the program be the official program with such changes that may occur. The Bishop asked that the list of Conference Boards and Committees be read and Rev. D. S. Selmore complied. The list was approved. The character of all Effective Elders and Accepted Supply Pastors was passed of the Atlantic District. Rev. S. D. Bankston, District Superintendent of the Atlantic District, read his report, and it was received. Rev. D. S. Selmore, District Superintendent of the Gulf District, made an amazing report. Both reports received praise from the Bishop and were received by the Conference.

Dr. N. E. Davis was presented. He gave a report of the outstanding results in World Service in the church and especially mentioned the South Florida Conference (though the smallest in Methodism) as giving more per capita than any other Conference.

Dr. E. C. Dewey, of the Commission on Evangelism, was introduced, and spoke on "Changed Lives." His address made us rethink of the serious responsibility that faces every pastor and laymen in the saving of souls.

The Bishop called for Disciplinary Questions 2, 3, and 17.

Motion carried that after introductions and announcements the Conference adjourn until 2.30. Visitors introduced as follows: Mrs. Oxnam, wife of the Bishop; Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Geiger, Mrs. Hannah Almgren, Mrs. S. D. Bankston, Miss Pennice Mason, Prof. P. L. Blue, and others. Benediction by Rev. Charles S. Geiger, assistant pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Afternoon Session—January 20

Song service led by Rev. G. W. Alexander. The Bishop read from "Service Prepared for the Church of England" with response by the Conference, "Dear Lord, We Pray Thee." Prayer by the Bishop.

Statistical Session.—All pastors reported to the special committees as outlined by the District Superintendents.

Motion carried that check of $60 from the Chartered Fund be given the Board of Stewards. The Bishop called for the reports of the pastors.

The Bishop presented Mr. J. R. Stannah, of the Book Concern, and Bishop Ainsworth, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; both made interesting remarks. Mrs. Ainsworth was introduced. The Committee of Triers of Appeal was approved and motion carried to adjourn until Friday morning.

Evening Session—January 20

Anniversary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. Rev. O. A. Burns, presiding, recently transferred from LaGrange, Ga. Devotional service conducted by Rev. G. W. Alexander. Address by Bishop Oxnam. The audience thrilled as the Bishop spoke regarding the tremendous opportunity we have to change our lives with a surety to win if we are willing to follow the Master. He quoted at the beginning and close of his message an unusual and striking poem as follows:

He Was a Gambler

And sitting down, they watched him there;
The soldiers did.
There while they played with dice,
He made His sacrifice,
And died upon the Cross to rid God's world of sin.
For he was a gambler, too, my Christ.
He took his life and threw it for a world redeemed
And e'er his agony was done
Before the westering sun went down
Crowning that day with its crimson crown
He knew that he had won.

—G. Studdart Kennedy.

Dr. N. J. Crolley, representative of the Board of Pensions and Relief, made plain in his address the necessity of every charge meeting its full quota and the inspiration we should receive from the adventurous lives our predecessors had lived in pioneership of Kingdom building.

The attractively robed McCabe choir, of St. Petersburg, with Mrs. Willie Mae McMurray directing, rendered the music. Offering, $12.28. Benediction by Dr. N. J. Crolley.

SECOND DAY

He announced the amount of units for the Conference: Atlantic District, 104 units; Gulf District, 78 units.

Stanton, of the American Bible Society, addressed the Conference, portraying the importance of the Bible in all phases of life and the vital necessity of influencing the young people to begin early in reading the Book of books. The Bishop was joyously amazed and impressed by the message. Report of the Board of Stewards read and approved. Brief remarks by Dr. Crolley. Report of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extensions read and adopted.

Report of the State of the Church approved. Dr. R. N. Brooks presented and addressed the Conference; subject, "How to See Straight in the Local Church." Dr. Brooks expressed the idea of making the right appeal to get new subscriptions for the "Advocate." The Bishop then read from the first Minutes of the church where John Wesley mentioned our duty to cultivate our mind and the right use of time. REPORT OF THE WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL OF THE SOUTH FLORIDA CONFERENCE

The Million Unit Fellowship Movement of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as established by the General Conference in May, 1936, marks a very advanced step in the promotion of World Service in our churches. Under the leadership of the World Service Commission, which has made extensive plans for promotional and educational work throughout the church, we hope to make an advance in the spiritual and financial objectives of our evangelistic and benevolent work in world-wide Methodism.

We recommend that all the churches accept their full responsibility in promoting the Million Unit Fellowship Movement through the use of the literature and programs provided by the Commission through the office of the resident Bishop, Charles W. Flint.

(1) We recommend that the 154 units be accepted and apportioned to the churches.

(2) We suggest that the Easter rally be conducted as in past years.

(3) We recommend that the sum of $3,400, or $1 per member, be raised for Bethune-Cookman College.

(4) We request that a World Service Council be organized in each local church, and be made effective for promotional work.

(5) We urge that Lincoln Day be observed with appropriate services and offerings be received for Bethune-Cookman College.

(6) We heartily commend the program of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and recommend that our churches loyally support its program. We urge our pastors to support the School of Practical Methods to be put on by the Board of Home Missions.

(7) We recommend the spirit and leadership of our District Superintendents and request the pastors and official laymen to accept their full responsibility in the Million Unit Fellowship Movement.

World Service Council,
By N. J. CURINTON, Chairman,
For the Committee.

Zion Methodist Episcopal Church and the public-spirited citizens of the city of Clear Water, Fla., united in making our stay here both pleasant and comfortable, and made our session one of the best in the history of the South Florida Conference; therefore be it

Respectfully submitted,

WM. P. HOLMES, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE AND PUBLIC MORALS

Realizing the fact—what ill-effect intoxicants and other intemperate elements have upon our physical life, our intellect and society in general—we recommend that every pastor and layman of the Methodist Episcopal Church advocate and preach temperance and decency everywhere.

Yours,

W. O. BARTLEY;

W. A. MITCHELL, Secretary;

W. S. HENDERSON,

Committee.

SUGGESTIONS OFFERED BY THE BOARD OF STEWARDS

In order to report our full Conference Claimant or Pension Fund each year, we, the Board of Stewards, suggest the following:

(1) Each charge put this claim into the budget at the beginning of the Conference year.

(2) Each charge organize a Conference claim or pension board or appoint a steward to look after this claim.

(3) The Conference claim or pension board or the steward appointed to report the amount collected at each Quarterly Conference.

(4) The said money to be sent to the board monthly, quarterly, or semiannually. Every dollar sent in during the year will draw interest.

J. A. SIMPSON, President;

A. T. McCASKILL, Secretary,

Conference Board of Stewards.

REPORT ON STATE OF THE CHURCH

The Methodist Episcopal Church remains a live, active, and progressive institution with a world-wide vision and program of objectives adapted to the needs of mankind, and operating among the peoples and nations of the world. Her ministers and educators under the leadership of her bishops, with their prophetic vision and apostolic fire, are among the pioneers of thought and numbered with the directors of the social, moral, and spiritual forces whose standards and efforts are harmonious with the New Testament. As never before, she is now placing stress upon the "Heart-warming Experience" and the making the "Jesus Life" real in the individual soul.

This Conference regards the Million Unit Fellowship Movement as a trumpet call for a genuine revival, consecration, and loyal service, and the bringing in a new day of peace, power, and purity in the "People called Methodist."

We regard the subject of Unification with all seriousness and much prayer, especially as it may affect our race and people, while faith inspires us to pray: "Thy will, O Lord, be done." We firmly believe that the Methodist Episcopal Church is awake to the vital needs of this age and that she is striving to meet them.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

J. A. SIMPSON.
